DETAILS: At Chicago, Illinois

Conferences were had with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] regarding this matter on December 28, 1961 and from January 2 to 9, 1962. At that time the location of Government witnesses in this matter was discussed along with other details in the preparation of a complex case of this type for trial.

b6

The Whiskey Case (60CR332) was on Criminal Calendar #9, assigned to the Honorable Judge HUBERT L. WILL.

This matter was continued for trial on October 9 and November 6, 1962. On December 26, 1961, based on a Government motion, this cause was continued from January 2 to January 8, 1962 for trial.

On the court's own motion there was a pre-trial conference on January 5, 1962 attended by defense and Government attorneys. At this conference, defense attorney [redacted] in behalf of his client, [redacted] filed motion for change of venue. Defense attorney, [redacted] in behalf of his client, JAMES ALLEGRETTI, filed a motion to reset this case for trial to a latter date. The above motions were concurred in by attorneys representing [redacted] and FRANK and JOE LISCIANDRELLO. A motion to lock up the jury during the trial was denied. Judge WILL took the other motions, that is, for a continuance and change of venue under advisement with a ruling to be made on same on January 8, 1962.

On January 8, 1962, all defendants with their respective attorneys were present in the court room of the Honorable Judge HUBERT L. WILL. At that time defense attorneys made a point of stressing the motion for a change of venue with several newspaper clippings which gave an account of this matter and attendant publicity in the Chicago press. Arguments regarding aforementioned motions were heard and concluded. The defendant's motion for a continuance of this matter was denied. The defendant's motion for a change of venue to another district, namely, the Southern District of Illinois, was granted. The defense at that time made known their preference for the Southern District of Illinois and Judge WILL ordered this case transferred to the Southern District of Illinois under the jurisdiction of Chief Justice FREDERICK O. MERCER.

The United States Attorney at Springfield was subsequently advised Assistant United States Attorneys, Chicago, that this matter was now assigned to Chief Justice FREDERICK O. MERCER, who had promised an early trial date in Peoria, Illinois in the early part of February, 1962.

The Bribery Case (60CR331) was referred to the Executive Committee for reassignment by the Honorable Judge JAMES B. PARSONS, who had disqualified himself from hearing this matter and this case was reassigned to Judge ROBSON.

He remarked concerning additional details of the business as follows:

The business was not too good; however, it picked up a little in February 1958. When the business picked up, in view of [redacted] they "passed the word around that the Flame was up for sale." Various patrons and acquaintances on occasion mentioned that they knew of a buyer; however, [redacted] felt this was "just conversation." He noted that a few days after passing the word around, a young fellow, whose name he did not recall, but whom he believed worked on a truck for an orange juice concern mentioned that he knew a man, though he did not specifically name him, who might be interested in the business. [redacted] at the time felt that this was just more conversation; however, shortly thereafter, a man who identified himself as JOSEPH LISCIANDRELLO, accompanied by a female, whom he stated [redacted] had occasion to visit the Flame. LISCIANDRELLO talked to [redacted] about [redacted] and directly inquired as to the price of the business. [redacted] said "You give me $1,000 clear and [redacted] LISCIANDRELLO said "Get all the bills together and pertinent papers and I'll be back." About two days thereafter, Mr. LISCIANDRELLO along with [redacted] came to the Flame Tavern again. At this time Mr. LISCIANDRELLO stated that he was buying the place [redacted] At this time all parties, that is, [redacted] LISCIANDRELLO [redacted] engaged in conversation pertaining to [redacted] Mr. LISCIANDRELLO and Mr. LISCIANDRELLO at that time gave [redacted] about $600-$700 in cash. The actual sale price being approximately $1,000; however, he deducted $200-$300 for delinquent mortgage payments,

Mr. LISCIANDRELLO stipulated that he desired to operate the Flame under [redacted] liquor license for approximately two or three months pending the issuance of a new license.

b7C

Since [REDACTED]

in U. S. District Court in Peoria on 2/26/62. there appears to be no reason why SA John S. Portella, [REDACTED] should accompany him. Any testimony to be given [REDACTED] must be free and voluntary and it would appear that SA Portella's presence in Peoria at the time of the trial might have the effect of coercing [REDACTED] to testify in this matter. Remy call 3/28/62.

SA JOHN S. PORTELLA of the [redacted] office, is one of several agents who has been subpoenaed by the U. S. Attorney at Chicago for trial in instant case which is taking place in Peoria, Illinois. SA PORTELLA and other agents were subpoenaed to appear in Peoria for a pre-trial conference on Monday, 3/26/62.

On 3/27/62 at approximately 5:00 PM SA PORTELLA was advised that AUSA [redacted] desired to speak with him. SA PORTELLA went to the office of AUSA [redacted] an AUSA in Peoria who was working with AUSAS [redacted] and [redacted] of the U. S. Attorney's Office in Chicago. Present at the time of the interview of SA PORTELLA in the office of AUSA [redacted] were SA'S FRANK J. FORD, SA [redacted] and JOHN J. OITZINGER of the Chicago office. Also present were AUSAS [redacted] and a female stenographer who was later learned to be [redacted] official Federal District Court reporter and Government employee.

At the outset AUSA [redacted] proceeded to ask SA PORTELLA about [redacted] of the Bureau. When SA PORTELLA commenced to answer the question AUSA [redacted] directed the stenographer to "take this down". AUSA [redacted] then restated his question and asked SA PORTELLA if he knew what [redacted] intended to do and if he were going to show up at Peoria. SA PORTELLA responded he had no idea what [redacted] intended to do and that [ ] had received notification from the U. S. Attorney's Office to report on 3/28/62 [ ] AUSA [ ] then asked SA PORTELLA when he talked to [ ] last and SA PORTELLA advised on 3/25/62 by telephone on a matter not related to instant case.

b7D

[ ] AUSA [ ] then asked about receipts [ ] and SA PORTELLA explained that these receipts were maintained in Washington, D. C. Both [ ] then asked SA PORTELLA if he had any reports regarding [ ] SA PORTELLA advised he had some of the reports in memo form but stated not having been in [ ] during the time [ ] he did not have complete reports. [ ] advised they wanted to review these reports and needed them in a hurry. SA PORTELLA advised that he did not have authority to produce any part of these records and authority would have to be obtained through the SAC in [ ] then indicated that they would handle this request and repeated they wanted all reports received from [ ] from the time [ ] until he left.

b7D

This was the gist of the interview between [ ] and SA PORTELLA at this time. Following this interview SA PORTELLA telephonically contacted ASAC [ ] Chicago, concerning the request for the records and receipts made by [ ]

The ASAC advised SA PORTELLA to inform [ ] that he had discussed this matter with U. S. Attorney O'BRIEN on 3/23/62 and Mr. O'BRIEN had instructed that no reports or receipts were to be submitted until the AUSAs had talked to [ ] personally and until the request came from O'BRIEN himself.

b6
b7D

At this time SA PORTELLA advised the ASAC of the above interview and stated that he did not voice objection to the procedure of recording the interview inasmuch as the matter appeared to be very informal and he believed that to refuse to answer after he heard the first question and to refuse to continue with the interview under these conditions would only tend to further aggravate the situation. SA PORTELLA advised that he had since learned that he was the only individual who had been talked to by the AUSAS wherein the conversation was recorded, and that this procedure was not used concerning the pre-trial conference with any other agent.

This matter was discussed with Assistant Director A. ROSEN and pursuant to this discussion SA PORTELLA was advised by ASAC [ ] that he was not to participate in any further interview with AUSAS [ ] if they had a court stenographer present. He was advised that he should firmly and tactfully tell them that he would be agreeable to cooperation but that their action by having a court reporter present for any conversation with him impugned his integrity and that he would refuse to be interviewed under such circumstances.

ASAC [ ] also contacted U. S. Attorney O'BRIEN and advised him of the activities of [ ] and further told O'BRIEN that the Bureau and the Chicago office strenuously objected to such activities on the part of fellow members of the Department of Justice, that at least by inference it attacked the integrity of one of our agents, and Mr. O'BRIEN was advised that this protest was being called to his personal attention and our agent had been instructed not to participate in such interviews with his assistants in Peoria if they insisted on having a court reporter present.

Mr. O'BRIEN advised that he was in full agreement with the objection of the Bureau and the Chicago office in this matter and appreciated our calling it to his attention. Mr. O'BRIEN requested that the Bureau be specifically advised that this information pertaining to the conduct of his assistants had upset him tremendously and that he was violently opposed to such a method being employed by his assistants. He stated that he was unable to understand why such conduct would be engaged in and repeated that he believed it was reprehensible. He assured that very specific instructions would be issued to his assistants in Peoria relative to this procedure on the morning of 3/29/62.

Director, FBI

On the morning of 3/29/62 Mr. O'BRIEN called the ASAC and stated that he had given specific instructions in the most emphatic way he could to [redacted] to immediately cease and desist such an undesirable practice.

b6

This entire trial is being followed very closely by the Chicago office and the Bureau will be kept advised of any pertinent developments.

As it will be recalled, AUSAs [redacted] in previous contact with SA PORTELLA concerning the use of [redacted] informant [redacted] as a witness, had a discussion that was reported by SA PORTELLA indicating the attitude of [redacted] and [redacted] with respect to using [redacted] as a witness in which conversation [redacted] indicated that if [redacted] took the stand and refused to testify, he would bring out in open court that [redacted] that while such would not be beneficial to the case on trial, he was not going to let a bum like [redacted] make a monkey out of him. [redacted] indicated in his conversation that he would do it hoping that it would perhaps get [redacted] killed.

b7D

It will be further recalled that this episode was called to the attention of USA O'BRIEN who made inquiry concerning such approach on the part of his assistants.

By way of background, this case involves the theft of a trailer-load of whiskey in Chicago, Illinois, on December 28-30, 1957. Six subjects are presently awaiting trial for violation of Theft from Interstate Shipment. The original trial of Gerald Covelli, one of the subjects in this case, was completed on January 19, 1959; however, the jury could not arrive at a verdict. It was learned at that time that one of the jurors had been bribed by payment of $200 and as a result eleven subjects are awaiting trial in another case for violation of the Obstruction of Justice, Bribery and Misprision of Felony Statutes. Some of these subjects are close associates of top hoodlums in the Chicago area.

This is to advise that [redacted] informant, will in all probability refuse to testify in the trial of this case on [redacted]. [redacted] testified before a Federal Grand Jury regarding this matter on [redacted] when he was not an informant, and [redacted]. Prior to his grand jury appearance [redacted] Office advised Chicago there was no objection to his testifying since it was not contemplated that he would be reactivated as an informant. When subpoenaed to [redacted] for a pretrial conference, [redacted] told the Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) on 6/1/61 that he would not testify because [redacted].

The AUSA was advised that at that time Agents could not force [redacted] to testify.

Assistant United States Attorney Ill.

When SA John S. Portella was in Chicago on 3/1/62 in connection with another matter, AUSAs [redacted] discussed [redacted] testimony with him. They insisted that if [redacted] did not testify they would expose [redacted] and subpoena Agents to [redacted].

They referred to [redacted] and among other statements, AUSA [redacted] said, "No crook for the FBI is going to make a monkey out of me." [redacted] refused to testify [redacted] said he would prove to everyone present that [redacted] was a "crook for the FBI" for the express purpose of placing [redacted].

The AUSAs were again told that we could not compel [redacted] to testify, and SA Portella strongly objected to the remarks of the AUSAs.

Mr. O'Brien advised that a memorandum was being prepared and he will make his recommendation and submit it to the Department within the next day or two and at this point he has not determined what decision he would make. [redacted] stated that he would keep us advised.

2. Attached is a confirmatory letter to the Department furnishing the facts and setting forth the AUSAs' unwarranted characterization of [redacted] as a "crook for the FBI" and their intention of unnecessarily placing [redacted] life in jeopardy as a retaliatory measure if he refuses to testify. In view of the above, the [redacted] Office was instructed to [redacted] pointing out to him that when he testified before the grand jury he voluntarily entered into what might be considered a contract to testify at the trial and in that he is not fulfilling this we [redacted] The Chicago Office was instructed to advise U. S. Attorney O' Brien of the action taken by the [redacted] Office in connection with this matter.

4. We are checking to determine whether there has been any improper handling of this informant.

BACKGROUND OF THE CASE: V R Jm Be WBU

This case concerns the theft of a trailerload of whiskey in Chicago on 12/28-30/57. As a result of investigation, Covelli and five other subjects are awaiting trial for violation of the Theft from Interstate Shipment Statute. The jury could not arrive at a verdict when Covelli was originally tried on 1/19/59. We learned that one of the jurors was bribed by payment of $200. As a result of this another trial is also pending involving eleven subjects for violation of the Obstruction of Justice, Bribery and Misprision of Felony Statutes. A change of venue was granted due to the publicity afforded this matter and the trial will be held in Peoria, Illinois, on 3/27/62.

From the description of the above material it is, of course, not known which of these pages refers to the eight signed statements, two of which have already been given to the court and the other six which have been sent by Houston for production to the court, or whether or not it is exclusive of these.

It was ascertained from SA O'CONNOR that knowledge of all ramification of material referred to by Defense Counsel [redacted] would only be known to former AUSA [redacted]. O'CONNOR pointed out that during the Houston trial in 1959, former AUSA [redacted] had various sheets of his notes which were tendered and loose leaf notebooks consisting of copies of statements, FD-302s and SF-64s which he had extracted from Bureau reports and segregated as to Government witnesses to assist in his trial preparation. For example, one of the documents from [redacted] would have been described as a Government tender consisting of 70 pages whereas it actually represented numerous FD-302s which were tendered by the Government.

b7C

SA O'CONNOR advised that he would have had no idea as to the data referred to by [redacted] and that the only person who would know this would be [redacted]

Director, FBI

AUSA [ ] advised SA [ ] that he had been in contact with [ ] and [ ] told him that he, [ ] had turned certain material over to the FBI from the USA's file in Houston and that this material was to be transmitted to the Chicago FBI Office by the Houston FBI Office.

b6

Houston advised telephonically on 4/3/62 that the USA's Office in Houston had been in touch with them and they could not obtain what the USA, Chicago wanted and they had sent a teletype asking the USA, Chicago to clarify the material he desired.

Houston subsequently advised that [ ] had discussed this matter with the USA, Houston and because the two of them could not decide what material AUSA, [ ] wanted, they are sending up their entire file for [ ] perusal. AUSA [ ] indicated displeasure over the fact that SA O'CONNOR had not gone to Chicago via Houston as he requested. He advised that if he had done this, there would have been no delay in getting the documents to the trial. In this regard, it will be noted that the Judge has given the Government until tomorrow morning to produce these documents and arrangements have been made so that [ ] will have all documents in the entire case tonight.

The ridiculousness of AUSA [ ] statement is obvious inasmuch as former AUSA [ ] and the USA at Houston cannot comprehend his request and have, therefore sent their entire file. Mr. O'CONNOR advised that if he had gone to Houston, he would not have been able to obtain the desired data any more than [ ] could because of the nebulous nature of the request and the complex manner in which [ ] had prepared the exhibits including the FD-302s and SE-64s.

It is our understanding that [ ] had discussed the matter of the statements of [ ] with [ ] of the Department.

b6
b7C

Director, FBI

On April 3, 1962, AUSA [ ] telephonically contacted me from Peoria and expressed concern that the material that he requested from Houston had not yet arrived. He indicated to me that if his original instructions for an agent to proceed to Houston from Miami had been honored, he would not be having this difficulty. I emphatically advised [ ] that there were several points on this case about which he was obviously confused. I informed him that number one, [ ] had not turned over any material to the FBI in Houston as he had previously indicated and that we had no material whatsoever concerning this case from [ ].

Number two, I advised him that [ ] who was the former Assistant United States Attorney most familiar with this case, had analyzed the nebulous request which he had made for all statements coupled with the description furnished by Attorney [ ] and that [ ] and the USA in Houston could not decide what he wanted and that, therefore, they were sending up their entire file to Chicago. I pointed out to him that this matter was not just a cut and dry situation of picking up several statements but that the memoranda pertaining to oral statements had been so intertwined with notes made out by [ ] that it would have been absolutely impossible for O'CONNOR to have merely stopped by in Houston and picked up this material. I again reiterated very definitely that if [ ] could not make head or tail of his request, obviously no one else could either.

I informed him very definitely that the FBI was desirous of cooperating with him and we had extended complete cooperation in this matter to the point of going to a great deal of trouble and making a considerable number of telephone calls to Houston in order to attempt to straighten out the confusion which he had created, which was still existent.

I informed him that we were continuing to cooperate in this matter fully realizing the importance of this trial and that we were having our Houston Office put all documents in this matter, both from the USA's Office and from our office, on an airplane today and that they would be in plenty of time for court tomorrow in order to meet the Judge's request.

I informed him that while we were going to cooperate to the utmost we certainly were not going to permit him to order our agents from one city to another in order to go on a mission which in light of even [redacted] inability to come up with the desired information, would have been fruitless. I advised him that we would honor any reasonable request which he made but we certainly were not going to permit him to run the FBI or tell us how we were going to run our own operations. I told him that there was a distinct line of demarcation separating the responsibilities and authority of both the USA's Office and the FBI and that he obviously had crossed this line of demarcation when he attempted to tell us that we were to get certain documents from Houston by having an agent go from Miami to pick them up. b6 b7C

I again reiterated to him the fact that even [redacted] was unable to comply with his nebulous request. I pointed out that they were obviously trying to blame the FBI for their own state of confusion in this matter. I advised him his criticism of the FBI was completely unjustified and that he was all too quick to make inferences without being in possession of all the facts and for his own failure to make understandable requests for the material he desired. He then made some feeble comment to the effect that he was appreciative of the fact that all material was coming in tonight and would be available for court tomorrow.

The Chicago Office also desires to point out that prior to the commencement of this trial in Peoria, AUSAs [redacted] who are handling this case, made a request that a Bureau vehicle be available to them during the period of the trial in Peoria. [redacted] were advised that this office could not and would not make available to them any Bureau vehicle for the duration of the trial in Peoria. They were advised that if they had any official need for a car during the course of the trial, the car belonging to the Resident Agent at Peoria could be so utilized. It is our b6 b7C definite feeling [redacted] expected agents of this office to chauffeur them around Peoria, even possibly after court hours for dinner, etc. Obviously we were not going to permit the use of official vehicles for such a purpose. [redacted] appeared to be miffed by this decision as indicative by the lack of cooperation on the part of the FBI.

As the Bureau will recall, [redacted] made some irresponsible statements pertaining to informant [redacted] to SA JOHN PORTELLA of the [redacted] Office, the account of which was forwarded to the Bureau and which shocked USA O'BRIEN when they were called to his attention. It is understood that [redacted] have felt very bitter that the account of this interview with PORTELLA was called to the attention of the Bureau and the Department.

b6
b7D

It will also be recalled that there have been instances since this trial started where it has been necessary upon Bureau instructions to contact USA O'BRIEN personally relative to the reprehensible conduct of [redacted]

b6
b7C

The Bureau will recall it had to do with their requesting the [redacted] and reports pertaining to [redacted] in spite of the fact that USA O'BRIEN stated that these records were not to be supplied until he personally made the request and until the AUSAs had talked to [redacted] upon his arrival [redacted] Secondly, while interviewing SA PORTELLA in Peoria they called in a court reporter to record the conversation. They did this only when PORTELLA was being interviewed. This matter was called to the attention of O'BRIEN also with a strenuous objection to such conduct by the FBI in Chicago and the Bureau. O'BRIEN at this time termed the actions of [redacted] reprehensible.

We will continue to extend every cooperation possible to [redacted] in connection with this trial but we will of course be most circumspect in our dealings with them and will not tolerate their attempts to run the FBI or blame the FBI for their own lack of coordinated purpose.

b6
b7C

Director, FBI

Remyairtel 4/3/62.

For the information of the Bureau, it is advised that at approximately 9:45 PM, 4/3/62, the files and documents received from the Houston office, which contained the files from the USA's office as well as from the FBI office, were brought to AUSA [redacted]. Four Bureau agents, together with [redacted] reviewed the material in these files until approximately 1:00 AM, 4/4/62.

A review of these files was made in an effort to attempt to identify the statements pertaining to the testimony of [redacted] in the ITSMV case in Houston which were requested by the court under the Jencks decision.

During the course of this review fortunately there was found in the records of the USA's office, Houston, a list of 58 exhibits which had been tended by the Government in the ITSMV case in Houston. Although some of the notations were not sufficient to enable them to identify the material involved, nevertheless they were able to identify 36 items that had been tended by the Government in the ITSMV case in Houston out of the 58. Six of the items, however, were signed statements which were already in the possession of the USA having been sent by the Houston office. Of the 36 exhibits identified it is believed that the 14 items submitted by defense counsel [redacted] to AUSA [redacted] were identified. These 14 exhibits were reviewed by AUSA [redacted] on the morning of 4/4/62 following which he proceeded to turn over to Judge MERCER for examination incamera 13 of these exhibits. It is known that AUSA [ ] withheld at least one document which he said was not pertinent.

On the afternoon of 4/4/62, after completing the review of this material incamera, Judge MERCER ruled that he would not turn over any of these documents to the defense as they were not pertinent to the issues on trial.

It would appear of significance that in the conversation with SAC GALE on 4/3/62 AUSA [ ] was complaining about the fact that SA O'CONNOR did not go from Miami to Houston to pick up this material. It is obvious beyond question in the light of all events that have transpired in this particular matter that SA O'CONNOR could not possibly have picked up the material in Houston because, as stated previously, part of the material was in the files of the USA's office, part in the files of the FBI office, and AUSAS [ ] did not know what they wanted or what they needed. Instead of inquiring, if need be through the court, of defense counsel [ ] concerning the specific items that he had in mind from the ITSMV case in Houston AUSA [ ] did not obtain this information from [ ] until Monday, 4/2/62. These notations were helpful in identifying the material needed for presentation to the court, and if obtained immediately would have facilitated our efforts in attempting to find the desired material.

SA O'CONNOR stated that he could not have possibly located the material desired by the USA regardless of any search made by him. SA O'CONNOR, who handled the ITSMV case in Houston, has advised strictly from recollection that some of the items which were introduced as exhibits in the ITSMV case do not appear to be in the records submitted by the USA's office in Houston and may not even currently be in existence.

The above is submitted for the information of the Bureau to once again indicate to the Bureau the manner in which AUSAS [ ] run in all directions without aim or purpose to exercise an attitude of demanding without knowing specifically what they want instead of one of cooperativeness, and to be critical too fast before all the facts are known and without any justification whatsoever.

RE: GERALD COVELLI; [REDACTED] - FUG., ET AL;

 (Chicago Origin)

In accordance with info furnished by the Chicago Office and pursuant to telephone call from [REDACTED] Criminal Division, 3/13/62, attached herewith is a memorandum of SA JOHN S. PORTELLA, 3/13/62, setting forth in detail the results of his interviews with AUSAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of Chicago, Ill.

SA PORTELLA on 3/7/62 had occasion to contact [REDACTED] and the COVELLI matter was briefly discussed. Informant, at that time, stated that he had not made up his mind just how he was going to testify in the COVELLI matter, but in all probability he would [REDACTED]

It is suggested that the Bureau may desire to bring the contents of the attached memorandum to the attention of the Department in an effort to obtain a ruling on how SAs in Chicago and [REDACTED] should respond concerning [REDACTED] status as a confidential informant in the event they are subpoenaed to appear in Federal Court for the express purpose of exposing [REDACTED] as an informant in open court under any of the situations outlined in the attached memorandum.

It is submitted that if SAs are forced to expose an informant, as in this case, this policy will sound the death knell for the Bureau's informant program inasmuch as practically all confidential informants willingly furnish info to agents because they know that the chances are very slim that they will ever have to testify in open court.

It is noted that this matter is scheduled for trial in Peoria, Ill., commencing 3/22/62.

SA PONTELLA asked [redacted] how this course of action would help the COVELLI case and he replied that it would not, but it would teach "a bum like [redacted] that he could not interfere with his plans to successfully prosecute a case that he has worked on diligently for the past three years.

AUSA [redacted] pointed out to SA PONTELLA that he first learned about [redacted] while he was interviewing [redacted] In regards to another matter and he pointed out that the [redacted] case is one that he,

[redacted] stated that because of this, he considered [redacted] who had no choice on whether or not he testified for the government. SA PORTELLA explained to AUSA [redacted] that [redacted] is considered a confidential source of the FBI and SA PORTELLA objected to his use of the words [redacted] It was further explained to [redacted] that confidential sources used by the FBI are instructed or advised that they would never be asked to testify in open court unless the case was one of national importance involving the internal security of the United States and even in these instances, the final decision as to whether or not they would testify would be theirs to make in accordance with their own conscience. [redacted] was further told that the FBI has never placed the successful prosecution of a case above the life of any person.

SA PORTELLA advised AUSA [redacted] that he would do everything possible to present his desires and wishes to [redacted] in the best possible light, but SA PORTELLA was not in any way going to attempt to influence [redacted] one way or another relative to testifying in the COVELLI matter.

[redacted] stated that a change of venue has been granted in the COVELLI case and trial in the matter will begin in Federal District Court in Peoria, Illinois, on or about 3/22/62 and it was his plan and intention to subpoena SA PORTELLA for this trial in order that SA PORTELLA would be present to handle any problem that might arise during the testimony of [redacted]

This matter is being brought to your attention with the thought in mind that you might desire to call this matter to the attention of the Bureau and the Department of Justice, asking them to advise how SAs of the Chicago and the [redacted] Offices should respond in the event they are called on [redacted] to expose [redacted] according to the designs of AUSA [redacted]

Enclosed herewith is an article which appeared in the "Chicago Daily News" of April 23, 1962.

SA [redacted] who was at counsel table during closing arguments, advises that the testimony of the FBI was not lambasted in any way as indicated by the headline in enclosed article. He advises that there were no remarks made by defense counsel during the course of summation that could be considered as allegations against the Bureau agents. Summation consisted of the usual attempt by defense counsel to infer that the agents could be in error, that the agents could be caught up in their zeal having worked so long on this case, and that kind of material.

FBI Testimony Lambasted in Hijack Trial

*Agents 'Disordered Mentally'
By Informant, Says Attorney*

By JACK WILLNER

Staff Writer

PEORIA — A defense lawyer Monday sharply criticized the testimony of FBI agents in the whisky hijacking trial of four Chicago hoodlums.

Daniel A. Ahearn said that Gerald Covelli, former mob musclem who was a government witness, "had disordered these men (FBI agents) mentally with his wild accounts."

Ahearn described Covelli as "a clever, rogue" who gave false testimony to get himself out of prison.

The lawyer represents defendant Dave Falzone, 46, night club manager who the government contends is an informer in the case.

Falzone, on the witness stand, has denied being an informer. FBI agents testified he had given the government information that led to the indictment and trial of the other three defendants.

Covelli has testified in behalf of the government.

IN FINAL arguments to the jury, Ahearn said Falzone led a decent life for many years, "and then he went into business with Gerald Covelli — Oh, unhappy day!"

Covelli and Falzone are former partners in Near North Side

FEDERAL Judge Frederick O. Mercer interrupted Ahearn's remarks to excuse the jury and summon the four defense lawyers to the bench.

The judge accused the lawyers of deliberately lengthening their closing arguments so that the government could not present its closing argument until late in the day when the jury would be fatigued.

Under a schedule agreed upon last week, both sides were to complete their arguments Monday, and the case was to go to the jury Tuesday.

"I do not approve of your backtracking and going back on your word to this court," Mercer said. He said if the defense took too long, he would allow the government to wait until Tuesday morning for its final arguments.

OTHER defendants are Jimmy (The Monk) Allegretti, 57, vice boss on Chicago's North Side; Frank (Hot Dog) Liscian-drello, 44, convicted panderer; and Louis Darlak, 44, minor hoodlum.

They are accused of conspiring to possess and possessing stolen Kentucky whisky. The whisky was seized by federal agents in March, 1957, in raids on three North Side taverns.

Porter Admits He Smashed Bottles Before U. S. Raid On Chicago Club

A former porter employed by one of four Chicago defendants in a conspiracy trial in Federal Court testified yesterday that he shattered half pint empty whisky bottles the day before the hijacked whisky was confiscated by the government.

GLOVER PITTMAN, of New York City, the former porter, testified that he was employed at the Silver Dome, March 14, 1958, by Gerald Covelli, the alleged owner. He said he had been working at the place before Covelli bought the club. The defendant, Louis Darlak, operator of the club, Pittman testified, directed him to clean up a back hall in the club where empty bottles had been deposited.

The witness said he removed the bottles from cartons which he folded and then broke the bottles in a garbage container. He said the bottles were labeled Sunny Brook, which the government alleges was the brand of whisky hijacked in Chicago, Dec. 30, 1957.

PITTMAN TOLD the jury that on one occasion just before Covelli closed the club-selling deal, he saw Sam Sperry, brother of Frank Lisciandrello, another defendant, carry a case of half pints into the place.

At that time the place was owned by Lou Fuchanis and Johnnie Luciana.

Following the sale of the place, Pittman said Luciana came to Peoria where he became a partner in Mike & Mike's place on First avenue. Later he reportedly had an interest in the Faust Club here, the porter said he was informed.

Luciana did not remain in Peoria too long, it was reported, and departed following the fatal shooting of a co-partner in East St. Louis.

Pittman testified that on March 14 when Darlak came into the place he warned him:

"Whatever you see and hear around here keep to yourself if you want to live long. We're tough boys."

THE GOVERNMENT late Tuesday introduced some additional statements taken by the FBI from Max Olshon, a previous witness. The statements were being studied today by Judge Frederick O. Mercer who will pass as to their admission. The statements were flown here from Houston.

Joseph (Ruffy) Lisciandrello, 58, was discharged as a defendant Tuesday morning by Judge Mercer because of illness. He will be tried later.

He is a patient in Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago, suffering from pneumonia, asthma and a heart condition, according to an affidavit signed by his physician.

The government had no objection since another physician they selected concurred in the findings of Lisciandrello's physician. Still in the case besides Davlakane are Lisciandrello's brother, Frank, Jimmy (The Monk) Allegetti, and Dave Falzone.

The defendants are charged with conspiracy to possess 33 cases of hijacked whisky. The $14,000 cargo of half pints were stolen from a truck in Chicago, Dec. 30, 1957. Part of the cargo was confiscated from three clubs, all allegedly operated by the defendants.

Witness Tells To 'Fix' Payment In Whisky Case Trial Here

By EDWARD F. MURPHY
Staff Writer

A witness with whose testimony the government seeks to convict his four alleged conspirators told a Federal Court here Thursday that he paid one of the defendants $2,500 "to fix" the conspiracy case.

Gerald Covelli of Chicago, an ex-convict, testified in the trial of four other Chicago hoodlums that he paid the money to one of the defendants, Jimmy (The Monk) Allegretti, April 4, 1958, in a Chicago restaurant.

Covelli said he paid the money for himself and his two partners, Louis Darlak and Dave Falzone. He said Allegretti told him he would add a similar amount for himself and Frank (Hot Dog) Lisciandrello, all defendants in the trial for conspiracy to possess stolen whisky, and Joseph (Ruffy) Lisciandrello, who was dismissed from the present trial because of illness.

THE GOVERNMENT'S witness told the court he had just returned to Chicago from a "hideout" trip when he located Allegretti and "Ruffy" with two other men in the restaurant.

Judge Frederick O. Mercer ruled that Covelli could testify with respect to the payment of the money only against the defendants who were present at the time of the conversation.

"It'll cost $5,000," Covelli quoted Allegretti as saying. He added:

"Jimmy said he reached out and made the connection to squash the beef."

"What did he mean by that?" John Quan, government prosecutor, demanded.

"That he would take care of fixing the case so there would be no repercussions," Covelli answered.

The witness said he went to Darlak and Falzone, but neither could raise the money.

"I called my wife and told her to meet me and bring her mink.

stole, diamond ring and diamond bracelet. I got $350 for the stole and hocked the ring and watch for $1,100.

"I told her to go home, get our gold coins, and hock them with her father. She did and gave me another $1,100," Covelli testified.

He said he and Falzone returned to the restaurant and he handed the money to Allegretti.

"THEN WHAT happened?" Quan queried.

"Jimmy got up and left through the back door and I went out the front.

"I saw Jimmy walk up to a parked car on Wabash avenue and start talking to someone in the car," Covelli said.

The government charges the defendants possessed 35 cases of stolen whisky on March 17, which federal agents confiscated from three clubs in which the defendants allegedly had an interest.

On cross examination which was not completed Thursday, Covelli said he would "lie and lie and lie anytime" to help himself.

Quizzed by Frank Oliver, defense counsel, Covelli testified he had lied many times on the witness stand under oath and in statements to government attorneys and FBI agents to help himself.

"Have you ever lied to hurt another person being tried?" Oliver asked.

"When I lie, I lie to save myself," the witness said.

Covelli admitted he had pleaded guilty to the indictment for conspiracy but had not been sentenced.

OLIVER VIGOROUSLY questioned the witness about his statements in Houston in a Dyer act case against two Chicago attorneys. He admitted he lied in that trial, but insisted he felt the attorneys were as guilty as he was, although they were acquitted.

Oliver showed that while Covelli was in the penitentiary his wife won a divorce, but later visited him.

"Yes, she did. The syndicate sent her down to see me," Covelli said.

"Any information about me would have to have come from your wife, wouldn't it?" Oliver asked.

"Yes," he answered, but "Cottingham (government attorney who prosecuted the case in Houston) told me you said I had signed my death warrant," Covelli testified.

Oliver asked the witness if he was aware he was facing a severe sentence in the conspiracy case and would he lie on the stand here to help himself, to which the witness replied.

"No sir, I wouldn't."

However he did admit he had lied in statements taken from him by William Weatherwax and John J. Oitzinger, both FBI agents, who are expected to testify for the government.

Lied in '59 To Help My Partners, Whisky Trial Witness Claims

By EDWARD F. MURPHY
Staff Writer

"I told the FBI so many lies about this case I don't remember now what I told them," the government's star witness in the conspiracy trial of four other Chicago hoodlums told a Federal Court jury Friday.

Gerald Covelli, an ex-convict, made the statement on cross-examination concerning statements he gave the FBI in 1959 when he assumed most of the blame for possession of stolen whisky.

"I was trying to help my business partners at the time," meaning the defendants, he said in response to a defense question.

"The truth is that never before you sat on this witness stand did you implicate all of these defendants, isn't that true?" Covelli had been asked.

The witness said he didn't think "they could get an indictment against them."

"I didn't relate all the story to agents and government attorneys. I didn't relate to my business associates. I was trying to keep them out of it," Covelli said.

"When you leased the Silver Dome on March 13, 1958, you had known Lou Fushanis for a long time and he knew your name was Covelli, didn't he?" the defense asked. (Covelli signed the lease as Jerry Dalo, an alias.)

"I HAD JUST met him a few days before but he knew my name. Joseph Lisciaandrello, who was discharged as a witness because of illness, told him."

Covelli said after the indictments were returned by a federal grand jury and he pleaded guilty that he had been harassed by the defendants. He said that as long as he had to "do time why shouldn't they, too," accounting for his change from protecting the defendants.

Throughout Friday's session, defense attorneys sought to discredit the witness because of his admission of lies about previous testimony in a trial at Houston and his many statements to the government.

He was closely questioned about when he first saw the 400 cases of half pints of the stolen liquor in the Continental Cafe.

He told agents he first saw it after Louis Darlak, another defendant, had it stored, but he also said he helped carry it into the place.

"Now you are saying it was Darlak. Is your memory better now than in 1959?" he was asked.

"I have a tendency to lie. I have all my life. Now I'm telling the truth," he said.

COVELLI WAS questioned at length whether he knew what sentence he would get in the conspiracy case for pleading guilty and testifying. He said he did not know.

The court adjourned the case until 10 a. m. Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Covelli and Max Al-Monk Allegretti, who is held by the government in protective custody, will be housed in the federal section of the Peoria County jail, it was reported.

Hijack Figure Asked To Be Indicted: Covelli

Falzone Didn't Want to Face Hoodlum Wrath, Court Told

By JACK WILLNER
Staff Writer

PEORIA—A syndicate flunky pleaded to be indicted and tried rather than face the wrath of his hoodlum associates as a known informer, a government witness testified Wednesday.

The witness, Gerald Covelli, a hoodlum who has testified for the government in a whisky hijacking case here, said Dave Falzone, 44, asked to be indicted so his associates "would know I'm not talking."

However, Covelli said, Falzone did provide valuable information about the hijacking ring in a conference with government attorneys in April, 1960, in the U.S. Courthouse in Chicago.

EARLIER, while the jury was not present, John J. Quan, assistant U.S. attorney, reported that Falzone said he had been threatened with death by Jimmie (The Monk) Allegritti, 57, Chicago North Side crime boss and another defendant.

At one point in the questioning, which wound up Covelli's fourth day on the stand, Quan asked him why he had been studying Spanish and Italian. Covelli replied:

"If and when I get out of this mess, I know I will have to leave the country because there is a price on my head."

THIS brought a call for a mistrial from the four defense lawyers, a motion that was denied by U.S. District Court Judge Frederick O. Mercer.

Covelli has been under heavy police guard since it was revealed he would be a government witness.

In cross-examination, defense attorneys tried to show that Covelli had threatened Falzone with death if he did not testify for the government. Covelli denied this.

THE JURY of five women and seven men is hearing the case, which revolves around government charges that he, defendants stored stolen whiskey in North Side night spots.

Defendants with Allegritti and Falzone are Frank (Hot Dog) Lisciandrello, 44, convicted panderer, and Louis Darlak, 46, a petty hoodlum.

AT PEORIA, ILLINOIS - INFORMATION

One copy of this report is being designated for the Peoria Resident Agency for information purposes in view of the fact that the trial was held in that area and pending motions will be heard there in the near future. It is also noted that all government exhibits, including several cases of whiskey, are in the court's custody at that point.

2. Will check on the present status of JOSEPH LISCIANDRELLO who has been confined due to illness in Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago, Illinois

3. Will review file and concentrate attention on the bribery phase of captioned case with a view to preparing same for trial which, according to Assistant United States Attorneys, may be set for the fall of this year.

ADMINISTRATIVE

It is noted that the period in this report is rather extensive; however, all leads in this matter have been handled in expeditious fashion with the Bureau being kept advised by the most expeditious means of communication, such as airtels and daily teletypes during the trial period. The focal point of attention in this matter was being given during the pertinent period to the location of government witnesses and the preparation of this case for trial which took place from March 28, 1962, to April 24, 1962.

For the purpose of brevity and economy in this report witnesses and details of the trial which took place in Peoria, Illinois, from March 27, 1962, to April 24, 1962, are not being set forth inasmuch as a daily transcript of all testimony of this case was maintained during the trial and a copy of which is available to the Chicago Office if needed.

INFORMANTS

On April 1, 1962, [redacted] advised SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER that he has become aware that during cross examination of GERALD COVELLI in the trial for JIMMIE ALLEGRETTI; ET AL the defense attorneys will ask questions of COVELLI with the intention of indicating to the jury that COVELLI was formerly connected with the deceased hoodlums PAUL "Needlenose" LABRIOLA and JIMMIE WEINBERG in shaking down tavern owners in the suburbs of Chicago and that in the mid 1950's when these two hoodlums were found they were found in the trunk of COVELLI's car. The defense attorneys would attempt to show that COVELLI was implicated in these murders. b7D

On April 3, 1962, [redacted] advised SA ROEMER that he has obtained information that JIMMIE ALLEGRETTI is concerned with what he believes to be false testimony on the part of MAX OLSHON at the trial of subjects involved in captioned matter. In order to counteract the testimony of OLSHON contact has been made by [redacted] with one [redacted] (LNU) (known to be [redacted] who previously, during a pertinent phase of this case, [redacted] Cafe Continental) [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Aforementioned informant advised SA ROEMER on April 6, 1962, that JIMMIE ALLEGRETTI and his co-defendants are aware of the fact that a former basketball player for Bradley University in Peoria is one of the jurors sitting on the jury in the ALLEGRETTI case. The informant advised that ALLEGRETTI and his associates are aware that when this individual played for Bradley University he was involved in a basketball fix scandal. He advised, however, that he is not cognizant whether this particular player, the juror, was personally involved in the scandal. He stated however that from conversations of ALLEGRETTI it appears that he and his associates are giving some consideration to attempting to reach this juror.

On April 6, 1962, the above informant advised SA ROEMER that he was in recent conversation with JIMMIE ALLEGRETTI and that due to his conversation with ALLEGRETTI he has become aware that ALLEGRETTI knows that the government has obtained the records of Blue Cross and Blue Shield in order to connect him to the ownership of Ciro's Restaurant. He noted that this is very important to the case against ALLEGRETTI.

In order to counteract the evidence which will be introduced by showing the records of Blue Cross and Blue Shield, ALLEGRETTI has reached out for [redacted] and possibly for [redacted] in order to show that the owner of Ciro's gave permission to ALLEGRETTI to be listed as an employee of Ciro's for purposes of enrollment in the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plan even though ALLEGRETTI allegedly had no connection with Ciro's

The whiskey case (60CR332) was set for trial on 2/26/62 at Peoria, Illinois; however, due to defense attorneys commitments in other matters continuance was granted to 3/62. Jury trial in this matter was held in United States District Court, Southern District of Illinois, before the Honorable Judge FREDERICK O. MERCER from 3/27/62 to 4/24/62. The case was given to the jury 4/24/62. On the same date the jury returned a verdict of guilty against defendants JAMES ALLEGRETTI, [REDACTED] and FRANK LISCIANDRELLO on both counts in the indictment which is violation of Sections 371, 2 and 659, Title 18, United States Code. Judge MERCER deferred sentencing defendants until filing and hearing of petitions by defense counsels on 5/2/62 to set aside the verdict. On 4/3/62, during course of trial, court ruled mistrial in behalf of JOSEPH LISCIANDRELLO who was in Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, due to ill health. The bribery case (60CR331) which was assigned to Judge ROBSON was returned to the Executive Committee for reassignment and accordingly this case was reassigned to the Honorable Judge HUBERT L. WILL. No date was set for trial. Additional investigation set forth.

[redacted] attorney [redacted] and several other unidentified people met at Milano's Restaurant at State and Division Streets. They discussed the progress of the pending trial at Peoria and stated that they had recently obtained photographs of the cooler and whiskey room where approximately 400 cases of whiskey were allegedly stored by COVELLI. According to the conversation the rooms mentioned were physically too small to hold the amount of whiskey allegedly placed there by COVELLI. [redacted] and the others were very optimistic over the impact these photographs would have in the trial and they felt they could turn the trial against COVELLI as a government witness.

[redacted] said that he actually was shocked to hear that [redacted] was connected with the Chicago "outfit". [redacted] said that he meant by "outfit" the Chicago hoodlum gang. [redacted] said that he recalls the night of April 4, 1962, at about 9:30 PM in the Yorkshire Room of the Sands Motel in Peoria, and recalls the Government attorney, whom he later found was [redacted] was at a table in the corner of the barroom with two newspaper men whom he recognized and another tall man whom he could not identify. After seeing [redacted] at the table, he saw [redacted] standing at the corner of the bar with [redacted] talking to [redacted]. He said he felt that there was a third person standing there, whom he described as a tall man. He heard [redacted] talking to [redacted] and it sounded like [redacted] was threatening [redacted] because of the tone of his voice. It sounded as if he was trying to talk [redacted] out of taking the stand. He recalled that [redacted] said to [redacted] "If you take the stand we will murder you". He felt as if [redacted] meant that the cross examination would be rough.

That is about all the conversation he heard at the bar that night between [redacted]. About 2 or 2½ hours later, [redacted] was at the bar and there were very few people in the room at this time. [redacted] was angry because he had been threatened by [redacted] and at this time [redacted] statement made [redacted] nothing much more was said that night. Possibly a week later, and probably the night before [redacted] testified in the trial [redacted] and said [redacted]

b6

[redacted] said that he did recall and at this point [redacted] asked [redacted] if the lawyer wanted him to. [redacted] said that he would testify because this is what he heard and besides that [redacted] was considered a friend of his. It was either that night or the night after that [redacted] delivered a subpoena to [redacted] thereafter testified. At all times when [redacted] was talking to [redacted] there was no third person present.

SI 15-1949

[redacted] when first contacted and when the interview began, mentioned the fact that he had given some information on the stand that was not exactly right, but this was given innocently. It had to do with the fact as to whether [redacted] was in the Yorkshire Room of the Sands Motel on April 4, 1962. He said that he recalled that [redacted] was there that night and he automatically believed that [redacted] was not there, because she was usually not present when he was around. However, after [redacted] appeared in court, he talked to [redacted] and reconsidered and recalls now that [redacted] was at the Yorkshire Room of the Sands Motel on April 4, 1962. He said that he does not believe that [redacted] prior to the time [redacted] came to Peoria for trial, and he believes that he himself introduced her to [redacted].

Prior to the time that [redacted] came to Peoria, for trial, [redacted] said that he had not seen him for possibly [redacted] or [redacted] years. He said that he testified as to what he heard and could furnish nothing further.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Gerald

I wish to call to your attention the excellent work of your Special Agent [redacted] of the Chicago office in the matter of the United States v. Covelli, Allegrretti, et al, Case No. 60 CR 332. Your Agent pursued this matter through four years of intense investigation making it possible to convict among others James "The Monk" Allegrretti, a key syndicate figure on Chicago's near North Side.

Special Agent [redacted] worked diligently on this matter and was of an inestimable aid to the prosecution. He maintained contact with underworld figures which in the last analysis provided the margin of victory and shattered the fabricated defense of one of the defendants.

His ability as a truthful, calm, dispassionate witness, was so clear and convincing that his testimony alone destroyed the fabricated defense of the defendants. He has outstanding ability and is a credit to you and your organization.

I have taken the liberty to call this Agent's action to the attention of the Attorney General in this most important case and I am enclosing herewith a copy of my letter to him.

Very truly yours,

I wish to call to your attention the fine work of your Special Agent John Oitzinger of the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the matter of the United States v. Covelli, Allegretti, et al, Case No. 60 CR 332. This Agent has been attached to the investigation and prosecution of this case since its inception four years ago. Throughout this period of time, his attention to detail and outstanding cooperation with my office has been of the highest order. In particular I wish to commend him to you for his assistance to my office during the five-week trial in Peoria, Illinois. I am informed that his work in this regard was outstanding. In addition, he appeared as a witness for the government. Under intense cross-examination by four defense counsel, his knowledge of the facts and his dispassionate approach was extremely forceful for the prosecution.

I have taken the liberty to call this Agent's action to the attention of the Attorney General in this most important case and I am enclosing herewith a copy of my letter to him.

When contacted by Bureau agent at Miami on 11/16/62, [REDACTED] was enthused over the prospect of his first employment since his release from custody at Chicago in the spring of [REDACTED]. Relative to his release from custody, [REDACTED] has indicated a certain hostility toward former AUSA [REDACTED] Chicago, relating that [REDACTED] gave him $5.00 at the time and told him he was "on his own" whereas a convict who never assisted the government by testimony but who is released on parole is given more assistance, particularly in obtaining employment.

In view of the delays which frequently occur in trials of this nature, it is suggested that before [REDACTED] is served with subpoena, the date of trial be ascertained and, as near as possible, the date on which [REDACTED] would testify. Thus, his time in Chicago would be held to a minimum and arrangement could be made by him with his new employer to cover his absence.

It is also brought to the attention of the Chicago Division that in both the ITSMV ring case at Houston and TFIS trial at Peoria, all past statements of COVELLI and OLSHON were demanded by the defense under the Jencks rule. Re Chicago airtel to Bureau and Miami dated 11/20/62.

By way of background in this matter, on 8/3/62 defendants in captioned bribery case filed various pre-trial motions including an extensive motion for Bill of Particulars. On 10/2/62 the motion for Bill of Particulars was granted in part and denied in part. The Government thereupon filed a motion to vacate the order granting the Bill of Particulars supported by a comprehensive legal memorandum. On 11/21/62 in a memorandum opinion, Judge HUBERT L. WILL directed the Government to answer defendants request for a Bill of Particulars in accordance with his previous order.

When the Government received this order from Judge WILL, the Government took the position that full compliance with Judge WILL's order to answer the Bill of Particulars would make successful prosecution of this case highly problematical. This is based on the fact that the juror bribery case is a difficult one at best, and it depends

Therefore, the USA's Office, Chicago, by correspondence dated 11/23/62, has brought this matter to the attention of [redacted] Deputy Chief, Organized Crime and Racketeering Section, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. The USA's Office, Chicago, advised the department that a thorough review of Judge WILL's order would indicate that the Judge has promulgated an erroneous rule of law respecting criminal discovery, the effect of which would be to jeopardize criminal conspiracy cases. Therefore, the advice of the department was requested at the earliest feasible date prior to 12/3/62 with respect to the Government's position on said Bill of Particulars.

There is enclosed herewith for the [redacted] Office by registered mail a subpoena for [redacted] the serving of which should be held in abeyance pending the outcome of the above request of the department.

Reurairtel 12-8-62, if questioned writings were written with a pencil or a ball-point pen, it is not possible to determine when the writings were prepared since there are no reliable tests for age of ink (ball-point) or pencil writings. If the questioned writings were prepared with a fountain pen or a steel pen using ordinary fluid inks, certain age of ink tests can be made. However, it is very doubtful that any reliable determination of the age of the writings can be made in view of many factors which influence the age of inks. This is especially true when the examination involves an absolute determination of the age of the ink rather than a comparison of one piece of writing with another piece of writing on the same document.

Age of ink tests could be conducted in Chicago in one day. However, as indicated above, the results, if any, would be of dubious value. Also the decision on sending a Laboratory expert to Chicago would depend on the receipt of further information on the questioned writing such as whether written in pencil, fountain pen or ball-point pen. When such information is available, the decision on sending a Laboratory expert will be made.

Enclosed herewith to the FBI Laboratory are three sheets of yellow paper of the general type believed to have been used by Attorney [REDACTED] a defendant in the bribery of a juror case currently being tried in Chicago.

It is contemplated that the defense may attempt to enter pen or pencil notes purporting they were written almost four years ago by Attorney [REDACTED] during the COVELLI whiskey hi-jacking trial, when in fact such notes may have been recently and falsely made. The original notes were written by Attorney [REDACTED] during the trial of the whiskey hi-jacking case involving COVELLI and others in January 16, 17, 19, and 20, 1959. [REDACTED] allegedly [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the pad during the trial. This sheet was later removed by [REDACTED] and given to COVELLI to give to JOSEPH VINCENT DI VARCO. It is possible that a recopied pad may be entered by the defense and an expert examine the pad to prove that no sheet had been removed from the pad.

AUSA [ ] Chicago, as a point of information, desires to know if the FBI Laboratory can determine by examination whether or not pencil or pen writings were written nearly four years ago or recently, within the last few months. If such an examination can be made, can such an examination be made in Chicago, Illinois? If so, can such an examination be made in one day?

AUSA [ ] advised that if the defense did enter the above, he doubted if he could get the pad for more than one day for examination. If this examination is possible, advise if a Laboratory examiner would be available for such an examination in Chicago, the latter part of next week, if required by the AUSA, Chicago.

The bribery trial in captioned matter in which Attorney [redacted] JOSEPH DI VARCO and [redacted] are defendants is presently in session in USDC, Chicago.

In connection with the TFIS - Conspiracy phase of the case, JAMES ALLEGRETTI, FRANK LISCIANDRELLO, [redacted] were found guilty in USDC, Peoria, Ill., in 4/62. In that trial the Government was charged by the defense with failing to tender, in accordance with the Jencks Rule, all statements made by Government witnesses GERALD COVELLI and MAX OLSHON. Thereupon, AUSAs [redacted] and [redacted] handling the prosecution, requested all information furnished by COVELLI and OLSHON be obtained from the Houston Office where interviews of the latter two had occurred following their arrests for ITSMV - Conspiracy in 2/59. Subsequently, in USDC Peoria, the Government made numerous tenders to the court which were not delivered to the defense but were sealed by order of USDJ FREDERICK O. MERCER for study by Circuit Court in appeal by the defendants. Among these sealed Government tenders were six memoranda to the Bureau from SAC, Houston, all entitled "General Investigative Intelligence; [redacted] and dated 8/11,31/59; 9/14,23/59, 12/9/59 and 1/25/60.

In the preparation of the bribery case for trial at Chicago, it was necessary to check the sealed tenders and a court order was obtained and AUSA and BuAgent checked these sealed tenders at the Seventh Court of Appeals. At this time it was ascertained that former AUSA [redacted] now in private practice, and an attorney of record for JOSEPH DI VARCO, had opened these sealed Government tenders "inadvertently" in her preparation of the appeal in the Peoria conviction of JAMES ALLEGRETTI. Case No. 60 CR 331, ND of Ill.

Conspiracy to bribe a Federal Juror

My dear Mr. Hoover:

On December 19, 1962, the above named defendants were acquitted by a Federal Jury after a three-week trial. It should be noted that two of the defendants, Gerald Covelli and [redacted] pleaded guilty to the instant indictment and another defendant, [redacted] disappeared under mysterious circumstances in March of 1960.

Despite the acquittal of three of the defendants, I wish to bring to your attention the diligent and conscientious performance of the following agents of the Bureau, whose coordinated efforts were of invaluable assistance to the prosecutors in a case which was recognized by the Department as extremely difficult from the outset:

Subject GERALD COVELLI with court appointed counsel, [redacted] appeared in United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, at 2 p.m. on January 15, 1963, before the Honorable Judge HUBERT L. WILL for final disposition of all pending federal charges. In this regard the first matter brought before the court was the Rule 20 proceedings regarding the [redacted] impersonation case which was a transfer case from the [redacted] Division. This consisted of a five count indictment, four counts of which were violations of Section 912 and one count of which was a violation of Section 913, Title 18, United States Code, Chicago Docket Number 63CR25. Regarding this indictment, at this time plea and arraignment was had and COVELLI, through his attorney, waived reading of the indictment and entered a plea of guilty. The court at this time accepted the plea of guilty and apprised the defendant COVELLI of the penalty involved concerning this indictment, namely 15 years and/or $5,000 fine.

It was brought to the court's attention that COVELLI had previously entered pleas of guilty to the bribery case three count indictment, violation of Sections 2 and 371, Title 18, United States Code, Chicago Docket Number 60CR331, and the theft from interstate shipment - conspiracy case, which is a two count indictment, violation of Sections 2 and 659, Title 18, United States Code, Chicago Docket Number 60CR332.

The Government in the person of Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] advised the court that the Government does not normally take a stand in matters such as this, however in this case the Government would prefer to talk in mitigation rather than as so often happens aggravating circumstances. [redacted] in the bribery trial previously before the court as well as the theft from interstate shipment - conspiracy case which took place in Peoria, Illinois.

The court in the person of Judge WILL observed that it has had benefit of a voluminous pre-sentence report concerning COVELLI and was cognizant of all the things as stated by the defense and the Government. Judge WILL stated that it was incumbent upon the court to have further information available for the authorities prior to discharging COVELLI such as a stable residence, psychological attitude; etc. In view of the above the court noted that this was not a matter which justified probation.

At this time the court sentenced COVELLI, taking into consideration the one year he has served [redacted] to three years in the custody of the Attorney General on each of aforesaid three indictments, which sentence is to run concurrently. This sentence is to be served under the provisions of Section 4208A2, Title 18, United States Code, the time to be served under this sentence being at the discretion of the Parole Board.

Doctor [redacted] reviewed his medical history on JOSEPH LISCIANDRELLO and advised as follows:

Mr. LISCIANDRELLO first came to his attention when Doctor [redacted] was on the staff at Ravenswood Hospital. This was back in approximately November, 1959, and at that time Doctor [redacted] had prescribed treatment for a patient, a [redacted] (phonetic), believed to have resided on [redacted]. He later received a call from [redacted] with a request that he see, as near as he can recall, [redacted]. This was Mr. LISCIANDRELLO. Doctor [redacted] advised that he was making house calls at the time and his initial contact with Mr. JOSEPH LISHANDRELO (as it appeared in the doctor's records), 3758 North Lakewood Street, Chicago, was on November 19, 1959. At that time he prescribed medication for Mr. LISCIANDRELLO who he diagnosed as having bronchial asthma and an upper respiratory infection. The doctor subsequently treated Mr. LISCIANDRELLO for bronchial asthma and a compensated heart on March 10 and November 22, 1960. These were all house calls at Mr. LISCIANDRELLO's residence and he again saw the patient on March 4, 1962. diagnosed the ailment as bronchial pneumonia, a compensated heart with asthmatic conditions. Later that same night, around 11:00 PM or 12:00 midnight, according to the doctor's recollection, he received a telephone call from Attorney [redacted] (which name is noted on the doctor's records), making an inquiry as to why Mr. LISCIANDRELLO was not in the hospital. The doctor advised that as he recalled, this call caused him, that is Doctor [redacted] severe mental anguish at the time, as he thought it might be a malpractice suit. The doctor at that time advised Attorney [redacted] that he had not asked Mr. LISCIANDRELLO to go to the hospital because Mr. LISCIANDRELLO had declined hospital treatment on several occasions in the past. Attorney [redacted] replied, "Did you ask him this time?" and indicated to the doctor that LISCIANDRELLO would be favorably inclined in this case toward hospital treatment. With this in mind, Mr. LISCIANDRELLO, according to the doctor's records, was admitted to Ravenswood Hospital on April 1, 1962, at 1:10 AM, and received medication for bronchial pneumonia, compensated heart and an asthmatic condition.

The doctor advised that at that time he wished he never came in contact with this case as he was receiving telephone calls from everybody and receiving some notoriety among his friends regarding his patient. He advised that his records indicated Mr. LISCIANDRELLO departed Ravenswood Hospital April 12, 1962.

He next saw the patient at his home on December 29, 1962, prescribing medication for an upper respiratory infection and on April 2, 1963, again called at the patient's home, on request, as Mr. LISCIANDRELLO had a severe asthmatic attack.

Doctor [redacted] stated he has not seen the patient, that is Mr. LISCIANDRELLO, since April 2, 1963, and assumes that since he has not been called, Mr. LISCIANDRELLO's health has improved.

b7C

The doctor received remuneration for his services while Mr. LISCIANDRELLO was in the hospital in the amount of $75 in cash.

Re Chicago teletype to Bureau, 1/15/63, and report of SA [REDACTED] Chicago, 2/4/63.

into consideration the one year that COVELLI was [REDACTED]

In view of this sentence it appears that the impersonation case against COVELLI pending at [REDACTED] is now completed.

On 7/19/63, District Attorney [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] County at [REDACTED] advised SA JOHN S. PORTELLA that he has received several telephone calls and finally a recent communication from Assistant U. S. Attorney [REDACTED] of the Chicago U. S. Attorney's Office regarding the U. S.
Attorney's Office's interest in the armed robbery charge obvious from this letter that the Federal authorities wanted to do something for COVELLI and if that was the case he was not going to stand in the way of the Federal Government. He stated that at the present time the chief prosecution witness in the armed robbery charge against GERALD COVELLI and [redacted] and has no plans to return to the United States. This, of course, weakens the prosecution's chances for successful prosecution. The remaining two victims, the District Attorney in [redacted] County feels, would be willing to forget the offense if restitution were made. He stated that his detectives have been in touch with [redacted] who is willing to make restitution to the extent that he is responsible and has placed in the hands of the District Attorney at [redacted] County, a certified check for [redacted] believed to be his part of the restitution. District Attorney [redacted] stated that he has no information as to whether or not COVELLI is going to be able to make a similar contribution towards restitution and he has no information that [redacted] is going to make this restitution for COVELLI. District Attorney [redacted] stated that as it stands at the present moment, in all probability the case against both COVELLI and [redacted] will be nolle prossed but this has not been done to date.

Inasmuch as referenced report sets forth the sentence COVELLI received from the impersonation charge in [redacted] there is no reason for this case to remain in the pending inactive status in [redacted]. Furthermore, inasmuch as the U. S. Attorney's Office in Chicago is communicating directly with the District Attorney at [redacted] County, [redacted] there is no further reason for the [redacted] Office to follow the disposition of that matter. For these reasons, the [redacted] Office file regarding GERALD COVELLI as regards to the impersonation case is being closed and the Theft from Interstate Shipment section of this file carried under a 47 classification in [redacted] is being RUQ'd at this time.
